KUB to Host Community Expo at Change Center on March 22

Customers can learn about career opportunities, energy savings, Fiber, and more.

Knoxville, TN – Knoxville Utilities Board (KUB) will host an expo to provide customers with an opportunity to talk with KUB employees about a variety of topics. The KUB Community Expo will be held Wednesday, March 22, noon-7 p.m. at the Change Center (203 Harriet Tubman St. Knoxville, TN 37915). Customers can register for the event at www.kub.org/expo.

KUB staff will be on-hand at the event to talk with customers and share resources and demonstrations about:

- Career opportunities
- Getting connected to KUB Fiber
- Bill payment assistance resources
- Energy and water savings tips
- Home upgrades that can save energy usage and money
- Programs to help customers take control of their bill
- Ways customers can go green and support a sustainable future
- Electric reliability efforts and outage response
- Becoming a Natural Gas customer
- KUB's electric, fiber, natural gas, water, and wastewater systems
- Plus, a kids activity station, and more!

“We’re personally invested in our community, and part of that commitment is to be available and accessible to our customers,” KUB President and CEO Gabriel J. Bolas said. “This is a chance for us to meet one on one with customers out in the community and help connect them with KUB resources that meet their needs, whether that’s potential employment, energy savings or safety information, bill payment assistance, or just help signing up for our services.”

Customers interested in attending the KUB Community Expo should register for the event by visiting www.kub.org/expo and completing the registration form.
